Contents

Tables and Maps xii

Illustrations xiv

Abbreviations xv

Introduction 1

1 Historical Problems: Sin, St. Vitus, and the Devil 25

2 Two Reformers and a World Gone Mad: Luther and Paracelsus 80

3 Academic "Psychiatry" and the Rise of Galenic Observation 140

4 Witchcraft and the Melancholy Interpretation of the Insanity Defense 182

5 Court Fools and Their Folly: Image and Social Reality 228

6 Pilgrims in Search of Their Reason 277

7 Madness as Helplessness: Two Hospitals in the Age of the Reformations 322

Epilogue 385

Bibliography 391

Index 427